August 10-14, 2009

The Hartt Middle School Band Institute (HMSBI) is a week-long workshop for middle school brass, woodwind and percussion students. The program includes daily rehearsals in both the Concert Band and smaller ensembles, sectional rehearsals, and music classes. The music classes cover musicianship, ear training, improvisation or rhythm, drumming and movement. Also scheduled are several faculty recital performances and assemblies for the students to attend. The week will culminate with a final concert on Friday afternoon followed by a reception for the students and their guests.

Students who are entering grades 7 - 9 in Fall 2009 are eligible to participate in HMSBI. Students should have played their instrument for two years and/or be able to play Major Scales up to two sharps and three flats, plus perform music at a middle school level.

Students entering grade 6 may be eligible with permission from the director. If unsure of ability, please contact the director, Susan Spaulding, for a consultation.

DAILY SCHEDULE

Each day begins with all students arriving at The Hartt School at 8:50am. The first activity of the day is a full concert band rehearsal. The morning and afternoon will be scheduled with faculty performances, sectional rehearsals, classes and small ensemble rehearsals. An ample lunch break is provided and students should bring a bag lunch and beverage each day. The day will close with another full concert band rehearsal. Students should be picked up at 5pm.
